REMSS 26-27 CLUBS

What Should I Join?

1.AI & Tech Literacy Initiative Club- Mondays at Lunch in Room 2157, Sponsored by Ms. Dosanjh
This club aims to better prepare students with the technical mindset needed for various fields of technology. Through interactive lessons and hands-on projects, the club aims to nurture the next generation of thinkers and a deeper understanding of AI

2. Artist Alliance Club - Tuesdays at Lunch in Room 1167, Sponsored by Mrs. Yao
The Artist Alliance Club fosters a competitive spirit for art and help other students enter art contests and help with real art critiques and specialized disciplined art lessons

3. Asian Heritage ACL- Fridays at Lunch in Room 1103, Sponsored by Mr. Wong
Asian Heritage ACL club spreads awareness about Asian heritage and helps the Asian community in our school feel welcomed and create new connections with each other.

4. ASL Club - Fridays at Lunch in Room 1113, Sponsored by Ms.Baturin
ASL Club is a inclusive space where students can learn American Sign Language, explore sign culture, and raise awareness about the deaf culture.

5. Black Students Association -Wednesdays After School in Portable 4, Sponsored by Mr. Exume
The Black Student Association is formed to give students at R.E. Mountain Secondary a welcoming place where they can build connections, celebrate Black culture and history, and feel seen and valued at school.

6. Bollywood Fusion-Thursdays at Lunch in Room 1037 , Sponsored by Mrs. Proust
Bollywood Fusion Club brings students together to learn and perform energetic dance routines to popular Bollywood tracks for Diwali and school events throughout the year.

7. Book Club- Thursdays at Lunch in Room 0151, Sponsored by Ms. Gill
Book club is a space for students with a shared love of reading to come together. It offers a community of readers where we can share book recommendations, offer our insights on what we've read, and of course, have a relaxing space to read.

8. Care Connect- Tuesdays at Lunch in Portable 15, Sponsored by Mr. Zwirn
Care Connect believes that students deserve the opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of others while connecting with people in their school and community. Care Connect wants to show that service can be meaningful while still being fun, and something students look foward to.

9. Ceramics Club – Thursdays at Lunch in Room 2016, Sponsored by Mr. Dykman
Ceramics Club offers a relaxed space to create charms and small items from air-dry clay while connecting with others. Members vote on projects and learn sculpting and painting techniques, spending two weeks on each creation.

10. Chess Club- Tuesdays and Thursdays at Lunch in Room 0164, Sponsored by Ms. Tilley.
Chess Club welcomes everyone, from complete beginners to experienced players, to learn and enjoy chess in a friendly, supportive environment. Members develop strategic thinking while building confidence and making new friends through a shared interest in the game.

11. Compassion Connection Club- Tuesdays at Lunch in Room 1168, Sponsored by Mr. Brunsch
Compassion Connection Club is dedicated to supporting local organizations like Langley Lodge and Langley Hospice Society, offering students meaningful volunteer opportunities to give back and make a positive impact.

12. Cosplay Club- Fridays at Lunch in Room 2114, Sponsored by Ms. Lu
To teach people no matter their skill level everything they need to know about cosplaying and that people can make new friendships with something they enjoy

13. Craft Attack- Wednesdays at Lunch in Room 2013, Sponsored by Mr. Dykman
Craft Attack is a creative space where students can relax, try out fun seasonal projects, and enjoy making art and crafts without pressure or expectations.

14. Cubing Club-Monday at Lunch in Room 1156, Sponsored by Mr. Green.
The Cubing Club is a space where students of any skill level can learn, improve, and share the fun of solving Rubik's cubes while building community together.

15. Debate Club – Thursdays from 3:30–4:30 pm in Room 1168, Sponsored by Mr. Dornbusch and Mr. Brunsch
Helps students build confidence, critical thinking, and public speaking skills by exploring opposing viewpoints. Members can participate in competitive debates, coach younger students, and help run novice tournaments while making friends in a welcoming environment

16. Disease Study Club (DSC)- Mondays at Lunch in Room 1162, Sponsored by Ms. Howard
Our goal is to raise awareness of health issues spanning animal, human, and neurological diseases, and to inspire future healthcare professionals.

17. De-stress & Connect Club- Thursdays at Lunch in Room 2106, Sponsored by Ms.Ouyang
To help students who struggle with stress, pressure, loneliness and feeling like they don't belong. This is a place to connect, feel comfortable and make friendships.

18. Dungeons & Dragons Club- Wednesdays After School in Auto Shop, Sponsored by Mr. Ekkert
Encourage creativity and collaboration with our peers through our campaigns

19. Economics Club- Wednesdays at lunch in Room 2157, Sponsored by Ms. Dosanjh
Economics Club introduces students to basic economic concepts through engaging discussions and group activities, with no prior knowledge required. Students from all grades can build a foundation for future economics courses.

20. Entrepreneurship & Investment Club- Wednesdays at Lunch in Room 2014, Sponsored by Mr. Kim
Entrepreneurship and Investment Club is a club to help students navigate the world of buisness and economy. Start learning small aspects of buisness and recognize your potnetial

21. E-sports Club- Mondays at Lunch in Room 2154, Sponsored by Mr. Sangra
Esports club's goal is to bring students with interests in gaming to meet, connect and build social networks outside academics. The goal of this club is to give equal opportunity to all students of different skill levels to explore their interests in gaming.

22. EM Girls Clubs- Mondays during Lunch in Portable 3, Sponsored by Ms. Jensen
The Girls in Business Club empowers girls to develop business, entrepreneurship, and leadership skills while exploring future career opportunities in a supportive environment.

23. Essence Lab Club - Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays at Lunch, Room 1159, Sponsored by Mr. Hurrell
This club gives students an environment where they can feel comfortable partaking in convivial experiments while being able to create products of their own liking

24. EZ-Brain Club- Thursdays at Lunch in Room 2158, Sponsored by Ms. Yoo
EZ-Brain connects neuroscience and psychology to explore the various aspects of human behaviour and the brain. By helping students understand complex neurological concepts for mental health.

25. Film Club- Fridays at Lunch in Room 0151, Sponsored by Ms. Gill
For students to come together and celebrate film as not just movies but as a medium of art. Students will get to meet new people who have similar interests.

26. Guitar Club- Fridays After School in Room 2113, Sponsored by Ms. Baturin
To allow students to approach guitar playing in a more friendly, comfortable environment. The goal is to have the club leaders guide the students to learn new skills about playing the guitar, so students can explore the possibilities of a new hobby regarding the musical instrument.

27. Hope2Children- Wednesday at Lunch in Room 1164, Sponsored by Mr.Mcknight
Hope2Children promotes youth healthcare accessibility through peer-led seminars, case-study discussions, and educational resources that teach students how to support peers navigating chronic illnesses or medical crises in their families.

28. Indigenous Voices - Thursdays at Lunch in Aboriginal Room, Sponsored by Mr. Sanderson
Our goal is to bring students from different backgrounds together, create a welcoming environment, and encourage greater understanding, respect and appreciation for Indigenous cultures, histories, and perspectives.

29. International Friends and Help- Wednesdays at lunch in Room 1112, Sponsored by Ms. Watson
Our mission is to bring together new and international students, as well as students who may feel alone at school, and create a welcoming space to have lunch and make friends.

30. Lunch and Munch – Tuesdays at Lunch in Room 1156, Sponsored by Mr. Green
Lunch and Munch offers a safe, welcoming place to enjoy lunch, make friends, and feel comfortable being yourself. Open to all students, it's a space to share stories, exchange advice, and help one another with schoolwork while building a more connected school community.

31. Marine Science and Conservation club- Mondays at Lunch, Room 1113, Ms. Cheema
Marine Science and Conservation Club brings students together to explore environmental issues and raise awareness of topics that may receive less attention. Members share their interests and build friendships in a welcoming community passionate about the environment.

32. Math Club- Fridays at Lunch in Room 0112, Sponsored by Ms. Louey
The Math Club is a welcoming community where students can enjoy solving problems together, build collaboration and leadership skills, and discover the fun and charm of mathematics in a supportive environment.

33. Medipath- Thursdays at Lunch in Room 2169, Sponsored by Mr. Jones
MediPath is a club where students interested in medicine can explore different careers, build skills through fun activities, and connect with others who share the same passion for healthcare.

REMSS 26-27 CLUBS

What Should I Join?

34. Model United Nations Club- Fridays at Lunch in Portable 9, Sponsored by Mr. Wickerson
Explore international issues through practice debates, conferences, and school activities. Students of all experience levels can build confidence, public speaking, and critical-thinking skills in a welcoming community.

35. Mountain Media Club - Tuesdays at Lunch in Room 1109 , Sponsored by Ms.Davies
Help create a monthly school newspaper through writing, photography, interviews, and design. Members highlight student voices, achievements, and school events while developing creativity and teamwork.

36.NextGen Innovators – Wednesdays at Lunch in Portable 1, Sponsored by Mr. Fraser
NextGen Innovators welcomes students of all experience levels to explore coding and technology through hands-on projects, hackathons, and coding competitions. With no prior coding experience required, members develop technical skills,and solve problems together

37. Nutrition Club – Thursdays at Lunch in Portable 4 Sponsored by Mr. Harvalias
Nutrition Club explores nutrients, vitamins, food, and fitness to help students understand how everyday choices affect their physical health. Members learn about balanced eating, staying active, and building healthy habits that support their well-being.

38. P.A.P.E.R.S.—Wednesdays at Lunch in Room 1154, Sponsored by Ms. Nijjar
Explore global news, current events, and important world issues through research, informative posts, and awareness campaigns. Members share perspectives and collaborate to build a more informed school community.

39. Philosophy Club-Tuesdays at Lunch in Room 1157, Sponsored by Mr. Exume
Discover philosophy through accessible, enjoyable group discussions. Members explore ideas, share perspectives, and meet others with similar interests, whether they are beginners or already familiar with philosophy.

40. Photography Club—Fridays After School in Room 0106, Sponsored by Ms. Walker
Share your creativity and explore photography in a welcoming space for all experience levels. Members exchange ideas, share their work, and connect with other students who enjoy photography.

41. Physics club- Wednesday at Lunch in Room 1106, Sponsored by Mr. Carroll
Explore physics concepts, share your interests, and strengthen your understanding through test revision and clarification. Members support one another's learning and organize teams to participate in tournaments.

42. Pre-Health Shadowing Club- Tues/Thurs at Lunch in Portable 8, Sponsored by Mr.Epp
Explore healthcare careers and learn how medical professionals work through virtual pre-health shadowing. Members collaborate, share ideas, and develop initiatives that help students discover opportunities in healthcare.

43. Programming Club-Mondays After School in Room 0163, Sponsored by Ms.Ruffini
Learn basic coding and explore app development in a collaborative environment. Students of all experience levels can share their interest in programming, exchange ideas, and work together.

44. Art Club-Thursdays at Lunch in Room 2013, Sponsored by Ms. Kang
Join a community of artists and creative students who inspire one another and develop their skills. Members share their passion for art while building friendships and exploring their creativity.

45. Anime Club- Wednesdays at Lunch in Room 2154, Sponsored by Mr. Sangra
Watch and discuss anime in a welcoming community of fans and curious newcomers. Members share their interests, enjoy activities together, and build lasting friendships.

46. Bike Club- Thursdays at Lunch at Metal Shop, Sponsored by Mr. Fluegel
Learn bike maintenance and improve your mechanical skills in a welcoming environment. Members practise working safely in the shop and learn how to keep their bikes running safely, with all cycling enthusiasts welcome.

47. Engineering Club- Thursdays After School in Room 0163, Sponsored by Ms. Ruffini
Share innovative engineering ideas and work together to bring them to life with support and resources. The club helps older students prepare for engineering after graduation while inspiring younger students to explore STEM.

48. Formula 1 Club-Mondays at Lunch in Room 0159, Sponsored by Mr. Zwiers
Connect with fellow Formula 1 and motorsport fans through race discussions, shared opinions, and fun activities. Students from all grades are welcome to celebrate their interests and build friendships in an inclusive community.

49. REMSS STEM TUTORING CLUB- Tuesdays After School in Room 2110, Sponsored by Ms. Davies
Build confidence in science and mathematics while discovering how STEM helps explain the world. The club supports students in understanding challenging concepts, developing curiosity, and pursuing their interests in STEM.

50. Robotics Club- Tuesdays After School/Thursdays at Lunch in Portable 13, Sponsored by Mr. Fraser
Learn to design, build, and program robots in a friendly, collaborative environment. Members develop technical skills and work toward participating in local robotics competitions.

51. S.O.A.R- Wednesdays at Lunch in Room 0116, Sponsored by Mr. Dornbusch
Work together to improve our school and surrounding communities. The club welcomes everyone and values each member's efforts, helping students feel noticed, included, and connected through service.

52. Senior Care Club- Thursdays at Lunch in Room 0163, Sponsored by Ms. Nera
Brighten the lives of seniors in Langley by creating meaningful holiday cards and greetings. Members collaborate, contribute ideas, and build leadership and organizational skills while connecting youth with seniors.

53. Student Council—Thursdays at Lunch (check Teams) in the library, Sponsored by Ms. Watson.
Build leadership skills, make new friends, and make a difference through school events, student initiatives, and community projects. Meetings are held on select Thursdays, with opportunities for students across all grades to get involved!

54. Spirit Squad – Thursdays at Lunch in Room 2154, Sponsored by Ms. Limb and Mr. Kim
Build leadership and friendships through volunteering, mentorship, and community-service projects. Grade 10 students mentor Grade 9 students, with additional volunteering opportunities for interested Grade 11 and 12 students.

55. Textiles For Others- Thursdays at Lunch in Room 2010, Sponsored by Ms. Costa
Enjoy sewing, knitting, crocheting, and other textile crafts while learning new skills. Members create items such as scarves, socks, and stuffed toys to donate to seniors' homes and children's hospitals.

56. Unity Club—Monday at Lunch in Room 2150, Sponsored by Ms. Heppner
Bring diverse learners and other students together through weekly lunchtime games and activities. Members build friendships and help create a school community where everyone feels included and belongs.

57. Video Game Club—Every day at lunch in Portable 13, Sponsored by Mr.Hucal
Meet other students who share your interest in video games. The club provides a welcoming space to discuss favourite games, share your enthusiasm, and build friendships through a common passion.

58. Warhammer Club—Thursdays After School in Portable 19, Sponsored by Mr. Francis
Discover the hobby of Warhammer in a welcoming, beginner-friendly environment. Explore a new interest and meet others who share your enthusiasm.

59. Open Gym Club—Thursday afterschool in weightroom, sponsored by Mr. Hucal
Improve your fitness, try something new, and build self-discipline and confidence in a supportive community. Members connect through shared goals of self-improvement while encouraging one another's progress.

60. Werewolf Club—Tuesdays After School in Portable 10, Sponsored by Mr. Exume
Play Werewolf, a group game that develops logical thinking, public speaking, observation, and listening skills. Each player has opportunities to share their perspective, participate, and build friendships through playing together.

61. Writing Club- Mondays at Lunch in Room 1114, Sponsored by Ms. Peterson
Develop your writing through collaborative brainstorming, peer review, and constructive feedback. Members share their love of writing while strengthening communication, reasoning, and interpretation skills in a supportive community.

62. Youth Empowerment- Wednesdays at Lunch in Room 0157, Sponsored by Ms. Schofield-Lewis
Build leadership skills and make a positive impact through community projects, cards for seniors, school appreciation initiatives, and research into volunteer opportunities. Members share ideas, develop friendships, and take on roles that reflect their interests and strengths.

63. Y-Tutoring- Every Day Lunch/After School in Room 2159, Sponsored by Mr. Ashby
Get academic support in a welcoming environment where students help one another. Members work through challenging subjects together and build confidence in their learning.

64. Gender Sexuality Alliance- Monday/Wednesday Lunch in Room 2008, Sponsored by Ms. Reimer and Mr. Klassen
The Gender Sexuality Alliance is a safe space where queer students can find community, support, and the freedom to be themselves.

65. Political Policies Club - Wednesdays at Lunch in Portable 4, Sponsored by Mr. Abbott
Focused on policy discussions and debates, giving student the chance to share their perspectives on policies being presented by political parties in Canada. We will also look at political policies of other countries around the world and how they affect youth there.

66. Rocketeering Club - Mondays After School in Room 0166, Sponsored by Mr. Moore
Rocketeering Club helps you try to get an understanding of how rockets work, how they are designed and how rocket science works. The goal is to design and build our own rockets.