About Our Presenters

CARLA CARR is a member of Kwantlen First Nation. She has cared for children all her life. Beads and culture are a passion for Carla, and she enjoys learning new things.

CECELIA REEKIE is a proud member of the Haisla First Nation. She believes deeply in the power of personal storytelling to raise awareness and foster understanding of Indigenous cultures and the history of Indigenous Peoples in Canada. Cecelia speaks from the heart, thoughtfully weaving together her diverse life experiences to create meaningful and engaging cultural presentations.

DENI PAQUETTE is Métis and grew up mainly in Alberta. She is an artist with a passion for craftwork of all sorts. Deni has a background in Indigenous policy and socioeconomic development with the federal government. She has also worked in publishing and commercial graphics. As a Kokum she loves to share stories of growing up Métis and sharing her culture with her grandchildren.

KELLY POITRAS

KAREN GABRIEL is originally from Vancouver Island, from the Halalt Band near Cowichan Valley. She is now a member, and Elder, of Kwantlen First Nation. A grandmother of five, a great-grandmother of two, Karen has been presenting in the district for over 29 years.

KRYSTAL DELONG is from the Kwakwaka'wakw Nation and was born and raised in Surrey. Krystal was taught to make button blankets by her grandmother, Liz Dawson. She now makes them for her children and enjoys sharing her culture in her presentations.

LYNN HEYES was born in Yellowknife, NWT. She spent her early years in Cambridge Bay, Gjoa Haven, and Baker Lake, Nunavut, moving to Vancouver at age 3. Lynn has enjoyed learning about her ancestry from her mother, Jennie Heyes. She is excited to share what she has learned with students and teachers.

Cecelia Reekie

PRESENTATION:

From the 1830s to 1996 tens of thousands of Aboriginal children were forced to attend Canadian Residential Schools. Cecelia will share the deeply personal story of her father's experience at residential school and her experience as an intergenerational survivor. Through her father's sharing of his experiences, Cecelia began to understand the devastating impacts of the Canadian Residential School system. She continues, even today, to reconcile this previously hidden history and its enduring legacy on Canadian Society as a whole. Teachers are asked to prepare their students to ask well thought out and sensitive questions.

G'psgolox Pole - Return and Renewal

PRESENTATION:

Cecelia will share the incredible story of her family's search for and ultimate return of the G'psgolox pole. In 1929 the G'psgolox mortuary pole in BC's remote Kitlope Valley, without permission of the owner, Chief G'psgolox, but with permission of the Canadian government, was cut down and sent to Sweden as a gift. The pole remained in Sweden for 77 years before it was returned to the Haisla people of Kitamaat Village.

NOTE TO TEACHER:

Cecelia will show a 20 minute video (please arrange to show this video through NFB Campus at this link) on the G'psgolox Pole. It is highly recommended that students watch the 70 minute documentary prior to this presentation. It is available through SD#35's NFB Campus Account.

Rooted in Truth: Adoption, the Sixties Scoop, and a Discussion on "Pretendians"
Cecelia Reekie

PRESENTATION:

Through personal story and historical reflection, Cecelia Reekie offers a heartfelt and honest look at the legacy of Indigenous adoption in Canada, including the profound impacts of the Sixties Scoop. Drawing on lived experience and cultural insight, she also addresses the growing issue of "Pretendians"—non-Indigenous individuals falsely claiming Indigenous identity—and the harm this causes to Indigenous communities. This presentation invites audiences to listen, reflect, and deepen their understanding of truth, identity, and reconciliation.

The image shows three vertical adoption cards from the Aim Centre. Each card has a black and white photograph of a child at the top, followed by a short biography and contact information for the Aim Centre. The cards are for Peter, Brian, and Judy.

PETER
Peter will be three years old in July. Earlier health complications cleared after a milk allergy was identified when Peter was one year old. A special diet featuring chicken, tomatoes and meat has permitted him to thrive.
Peter is alert and quick to learn. An aggressive, energetic boy, he loves to run and play with other children. Trucks and building blocks are some of Peter's favorite amusements. Peter is friendly and fond of attention.

Stories from the MAGIC CANOE of Wa'xaid

Cecelia Reekie

PRESENTATION:

Cecelia will take students on a heartfelt journey through the powerful stories and teachings passed down from her father, Wa'xaid (Cecil Paul). Drawing from Stories from the Magic Canoe of Wa'xaid and Following the Good River: The Life and Times of Wa'xaid, she weaves her personal history with the profound wisdom shared by her father. Through these deeply rooted narratives, students will gain a greater understanding of Indigenous knowledge, cultural resilience, and the strength of intergenerational storytelling. This presentation honours the enduring legacy that Wa'xaid left in our world.
