LANGLEY FINE ARTS BULLETIN – SEPTEMBER 26th, 2025 EDITION

Dear LFAS Families,

Below are some pictures and descriptions of events that happened to observe the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. It was a day of growth, connection, and learning.

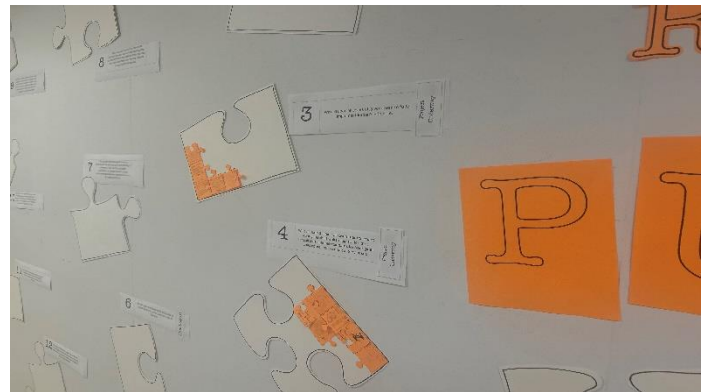

Adam Moore
Principal

Our elementary students were so fortunate to hear from Dr. Dolores van der Wey during their Truth and Reconciliation assembly. This was followed by a reflective nature walk.

Ms. Everson and our Grade 6-12 teachers have been doing lessons in regards to the 94 Calls to Action from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, and the work that has or has not been done in these areas. The culminating activity in each class allowed students to reflect on their learning and add their thoughts to the massive 94 piece puzzle that Ms. Everson created!

I was so proud to see our music department performing at Josette Dandurand Elementary for their Truth and Reconciliation assembly. This school is named after the late Josette Dandurand, a Kwantlen First Nation Elder who left a legacy of strength, healing, and care. We were asked by Luke Dandurand (Josette's son) to perform and it was such an honour! Our students performed beautifully and Mr. Dandurand gave a wonderful talk.

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation Langley Event

As part of the District's Truth and Reconciliation journey, we encourage our students, staff, and families to observe the day in their own way. Community partners in Langley are welcoming all members of the community to attend a National Day for Truth and Reconciliation event at the Derek Doubleday Arboretum on the evening of September 30th. Please see attached poster for details.

We were so thrilled to host the Cops for Cancer Tour de Valley last week! This amazing organization has raised millions of dollars to support childhood cancer research and support services at the Canadian Cancer Society. Thank-you to our students for being such a great cheer section and to our music department for their beautiful performances!

MUSIC DEPARTMENT FUNDRAISER

We're thrilled to partner with Thank You for the Music Society for a fun and easy way to support the LFAS Music Department! On October 24th, TYFTM is the beneficiary of the Vancouver Giants 50/50 draw and will generously share proceeds with LFAS. Plus, our school earns a portion of each ticket we sell, so the more we sell, the more we raise! Even more exciting, TYFTM was asked to choose anthem singers, and LFAS's own Emma Gjesdal was selected! Let's show our support for Emma and the LFAS music program with a strong turnout at the game! Simply click on the link in the attached poster to purchase ticket. See you there!

We're celebrating this year's Terry Fox School Run on Monday, October 6th and we need your help.

Let's honour Terry's legacy and make this our best yet! Donate at: <https://schools.terryfox.ca/LangleyFineArtsSchool>
